

Empowerment Through Education: Join Us as a Greek, English or Math Teacher for Migrant and Refugee Teens!

Job Title: Teacher for Migrant and Refugee Teenagers (part-time position)

Location: Athens, Greece

About Us: Faros is a Christian non-profit organization that provides care and support to unaccompanied children and refugee teenagers. Our vision is to see every unaccompanied child and refugee teenager living with dignity, hope, and equipped to make a positive change in society. We provide holistic care and essential services such as protection, accommodation, non-formal education, and integration support to children and teenagers on the move. Together, we wish to light their way.

Job Description: We are seeking a passionate and dedicated Teacher to join our team at our new non-formal school for migrant and refugee teenagers in Athens. In this role, you will be responsible for providing Greek language instruction to migrant and refugee teenagers, helping them acquire essential language and math skills, and facilitating their integration into the education system.

Responsibilities:

- Plan and deliver engaging and culturally sensitive Greek, English, or Math lessons to teenagers with diverse linguistic backgrounds.
- Assess students' language proficiency levels and tailor instruction to meet their individual learning needs.
- Create a supportive and inclusive classroom environment that fosters a sense of belonging and encourages active participation.
- Develop and implement effective teaching materials and resources to enhance language acquisition.
- Collaborate with other educators and support staff to ensure the holistic development of students.
- Monitor and evaluate students' progress and provide feedback to students and their families.
- Promote cultural understanding and respect among students from different backgrounds.
- Stay updated on best practices in language teaching and intercultural education.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Education, Greek English, Math, or a related field. Master's degree is a plus.
- Experience working with migrant and refugee populations, especially teenagers.
- Sensitivity to the cultural and emotional needs of students from diverse backgrounds.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
- Fluent in Greek and English (knowledge of other languages is an asset).
- Commitment to our organization's mission and values.

How to Apply: Interested candidates are invited to submit their resume, a cover letter, and references to jobs-athens@faros.org. Applications without a cover letter will not be accepted. Please include "Teacher Application - [Your Name]" in the subject line. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis and will be accepted until 20 December 2023.

Thank you for considering joining our team and through education contributing to building a brighter future for migrant and refugee teenagers!
