

Job description for Shelter teacher

Role	Shelter teacher
Team	Operations
Reports to	Day-center team leader
Location	Athens, Greece
Employment type	Part-time
Length of employment	Until 31.12.2017 with possibility of extension depending on funding

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

- Permission to teach in Greece with a recognised qualification

Essential:

- Primary teachers with experience teaching an adapted curriculum, catch-up classes, non-formal education or basic literacy and numeracy to refugee and migrant children.
- Demonstrated commitment to improving the lives of children in the school and community
- Experience teaching children for whom Greek is a second language
- Experience teaching refugee or migrant children, or other minority groups
- Proven technical knowledge and skills in the field of teaching, including classroom management, positive discipline, active learning and inclusive education
- Experience adapting teaching and learning material to the needs of students, particularly children with limited language or literacy
- The ability to engage children of different ages and abilities with innovative activities and teaching methods
- Knowledge of the national Greek education system
- Strong understanding of the current context for refugees and migrants in Greece
- Strong organizational skills, with experience of administration
- Strong verbal and written English skills
- Strong interpersonal skills and the ability to work collaboratively with others

Personal qualities:

- Self-starter/able to use own initiative.
- Team player
- Looking for the best in people and is good at empowering others
- High level of flexibility
- Looking for solutions and has the ability to keep calm in stressful situations
- Relates warmly to people
- Awareness of own limitations and when to seek help
- Proactive and enthusiastic

Closing date: 15 October 2017

Send your CV and letter of motivation to: jobs@faros.org.gr with the title “teacher” in the subject line